Mrs. Roosevelt Tells Students America Must Face Her Problems

By William J. Cotton

Understanding of peoples and conditions in the world is essential if America is to face up to world leadership, was the point emphasized by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, speaking in the College auditorium Friday, February 13, at 2 p. m.

One of the most distinctive personages in the world, Mrs. Roosevelt was given a standing ovation as she was escorted to the rostrum by Bob Owens, president of the student body.

Introduced by Mr. Owens, Mrs. Roosevelt immediately came to grips with her subject, "Is America facing up to world leadership?"

Leadership Came Suddenly
World leadership came to the United States from the fact that at the end of World War II, she alone of all the allies emerged with increased production and an unravaged homeland.

"Overnight our country became the leader," stated Mrs. Roosevelt, citing the utter destruction of the heart of London, the financial center of the world. Only the United States was still strong and could provide capital for rebuilding war torn areas.

In order to lead, one really has to know about others, how they live, their conditions, and how they think. Otherwise, unintentional mistakes lead to misunderstanding and alienation, she explained.

Leadership Is Today's Problem
Speaking of this new position, with the enormous responsibilities involved, Mrs. Roosevelt declared, "That is your problem today. We didn't want it, but there was no one else who could give leadership."

In the period since World War II, the United States has assumed leadership of the non-communist countries of the world, while Russia has functioned as leader of the communist countries.

Mrs. Roosevelt sees China as a possible threat to Russian dominance in the future, as China, with a vast population, is rapidly rising economically and politically.

We Must Know the People
Countries which are neither communist nor anti-communist are the crucial areas in which America must prove her leadership. "Our first problem is to know the people we must win, and we must know those in opposition to us," she denoted.

Mrs. Roosevelt paid particular attention to the tremendous progress achieved by Russia in the forty-one years since the revolution. From very crude and backward conditions, economic conditions have improved, standards of living have improved, and Russia is a power to be reckoned with in world affairs.

In relations with peoples throughout the world lies our greatest challenge, Mrs. Roosevelt believes. "Finding ways to show them that we care, and are interested in finding out about their conditions, is so important," she declared.

Government Is a Responsibility
Government is a responsibility of the people, of individuals, in the United States. Very often, we have made mistakes because of not taking the trouble to make ourselves informed of conditions in other countries.

Others blame us collectively and individually for indifference to want while wallowing in our surpluses, for oppression of minority racial groups, when most of those we seek to win are of colored races.

To our protests that we mean well, but just didn't know how

Registration to End At 4 p. m. Friday For Tower Queen

Only three more days are left for registration of Tower Queen candidates. Registration opened Monday, and the deadline for entries to be in the Registrar's Office will be Friday, February 20, at 4 p. m.

Any organization desiring to do so may sponsor a candidate. However, each girl must have an M average and a campaign manager.

To Restrict Campaigning

Campaigning, which will take place February 23 through 27, will be restricted. No banners, posters, or pamphlets will be allowed. Loud-speakers and hand cards may be used, however, as well as the personal approach to the students. Pictures of the candidates may be put on display on the first floor of the Administration building.

College students will cast their votes Friday, February 27, from 8 a. m. until 4 p. m. in the smoker. The queen will be crowned Saturday night, February 28, at the Tower Dance. Crowning of the queen and dedication of the annual will take place about 11 p. m. at the dance.

Five Will Be Court

Five co-eds receiving the highest number of votes will make up the royal court. Of these five girls, the one with the highest number of votes will be the 1959 Tower Queen, and the four other girls will be her attendants.

Seniors May Be Eligible

Seniors with a grade-point average of 1.75 are eligible to apply for recognition in "Who's Who," according to Bob Owens, student body president. Application forms may be obtained in Dr. Sterling Surrey's office and must be returned to the same office by March 1 deadline.

College Board of Regents Gives Approval to Building Addition

Enrollment

According to the Registrar, 1,669 students are enrolled at the College this semester. There are 1,636 undergraduate students and 33 graduate students.

This is an increase of 104 students over the spring semester of last year when 1,565 students were enrolled.

Notice, Freshmen!

All first semester freshmen are required to take a course in Freshmen Orientation which will meet at 3:00 p. m. on Mondays and Wednesdays. If there is a conflict in schedule see the Dean of Faculty, Dr. Charles E. Koerble.

Dr. Fulsom Casts Roles in Next Play

Roles in "Seven Keys to Baldpate," a combination mystery melodrama and farce comedy, have been cast recently by Dr. Ralph Fulsom, chairman of the speech and drama department.

Performances of George M. Cohan's popular play will be given March 12 and 13 in the College auditorium.

Carl Redmon will head the fifteen-member cast, with Marilyn Gillis, Eileen Rittman, John Quastler, Ruth Curfman, Dan DeMott, and Delbert Smith playing other major roles.

Completing the cast will be Darn Baschand, Ann Newcomer, David Vos, Bill Lippincott, William Price, Jerry Lucht, Leon Walker, and Ronald King.

An addition to the College Union building that will double its facilities has been approved by the Board of Regents, Dr. J. W. Jones recently revealed.

Plans and specifications for a new 64 by 112 foot addition have been drawn up. Construction is expected to start by March 1, 1959, and will be completed next fall.

Students Tax Facilities

The present Union building was built and opened in 1952, but the increased enrollments have taxed its facilities for the past three years. About 800 persons are fed now at each meal. The new addition will provide facilities for doubling this number.

Proceeds from the operation of the College cafeteria, Bearcat Den, and book store will pay for the new addition, which will be built on ground level to the west of the present building toward the Horace Mann Laboratory School.

Addition to Enlarge Den

Also housed in the new addition will be the Bearcat Den. The present Bearcat Den will be cut about in half and the remainder of the space will be used for storage and additional equipment. The Den will be built on out to the west, with six windows providing improved ventilation and light.

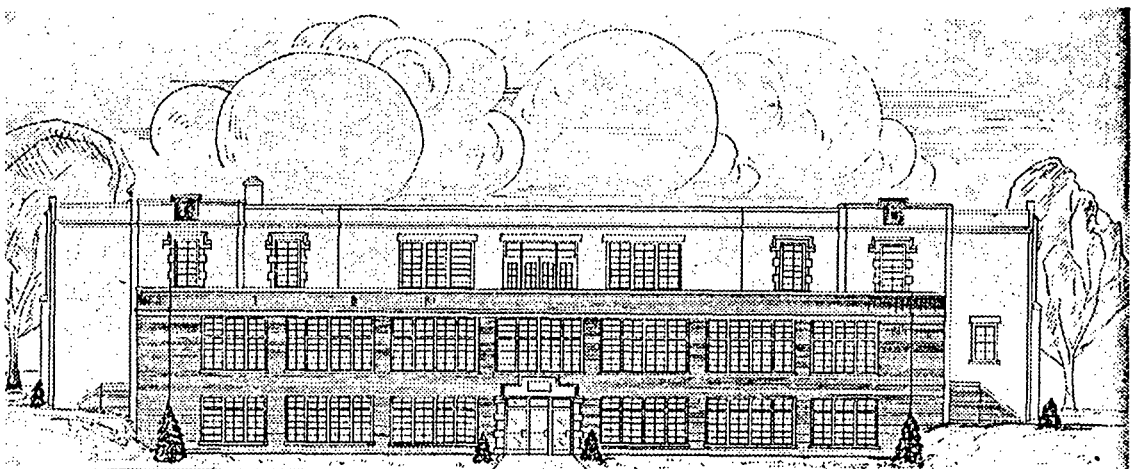

Plans for the proposed addition were made by Dr. J. W. Jones; Mrs. Thomas Sheldon, College dietitian; Lon Wilson, dean of men; Luther Belcher, business manager; and Roger Lind, superintendent of buildings.

Emil Bayerl, Kansas City, will be architect for the addition.

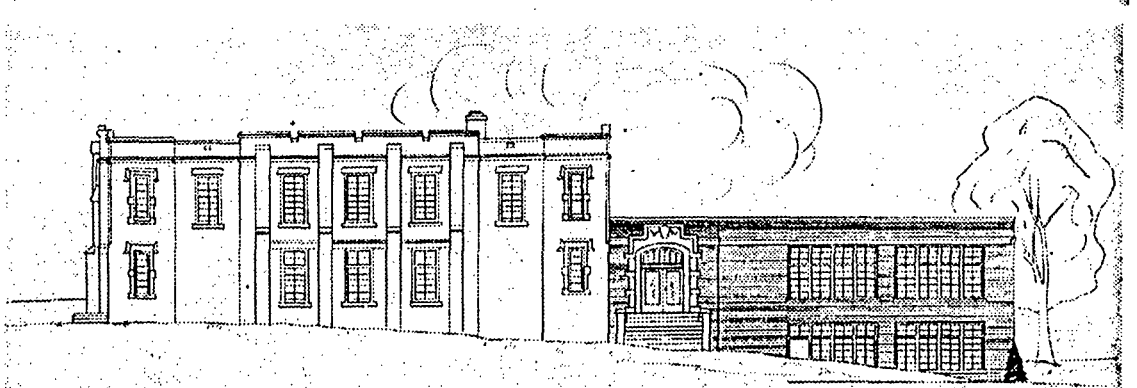

Frost Play to Be Tonight

"Death of the Hired Man," adapted from the poem by Robert Frost, will be presented tonight in Room 103.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"MASTERFULLY WRITTEN PROFESSOR SNARF—IT'S SELDOM MY PLEASURE TO SEE A TEST WITH SO MANY AMBIGUOUS QUESTIONS."

Why Say More?

To make the Bearcat Den an attractive place was what the Union Board and Student Senate had in mind when they formulated the rules for the Den.

Students, however, seem to have grown lax in accepting their responsibility. Consequently, notices are now posted which make clear just what the responsibilities of the students are while they are in the Den.

One of the notices in the Den reads, "No Card Playing, 11:00-1:00." Another reads, "Den Regulations—Please Observe. (1) Card playing in the back only; (2) put waste paper in cans; (3) put cups and glasses on tables; (4) put cigarettes in ashtrays. Help keep our Den clean. Union Board and Student Senate."

A third notice reads, "Card playing north of white line only." Why say anything more? The regulations are in plain sight.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:

Many students are talking about the new rules of the Bearcat Den. With few exceptions, the students feel that the rules are a step in the right direction, but that they have gone too far. The basic problem is one of a Den too small rather than a Den not used properly.

I feel that the idea of the white line is a good and sound one. The restriction on card playing which prohibits such activity from 11 to 1 is, however, unnecessarily harsh. I have yet to see the Den filled before 11:45 or after 12:30. As classes do not dismiss until ten minutes before the hour, and the majority of students leave for class at ten or fifteen minutes before the hour, there is no need for the restriction from 11 to 11:45 and from 12:30 to 1.

A much better rule would be to eliminate card playing from 11:30 to 12:30 only, if not from 11:45 to 12:30. I do hope and trust that some change will be made, as during part of the time now restricted, the Den's facilities are being partially wasted.

Letter Gives Story About Famous Tree

President J. W. Jones recently received from a former student of the College a letter containing another story about the College's famous Chinese Golden Rain Tree, which adorns the lawn just south of the Administration building.

Mrs. Amber Stoner Culp, Bethany, collected a handful of seeds of the tree one day in the summer of 1950. She writes as follows: "Approximately eighty seeds were planted; only three of them germinated. These were placed in coffee cans in the basement for the first winter.

"Unfortunately, our not-so-beloved-after-that cat ate the top from one plant, causing it to die. The others were placed out of doors for permanent homes as soon as the weather became warm enough for them. They are now about twelve and fifteen feet tall. They are beautiful, we think; and we never tire of telling visitors about them. They flower and seed, so that Russell decided to try to grow more of them."

Mr. Culp planted five of the seeds in his "treasured 'glad' bed." One of the plants grew, and it was given great care. It was later transplanted and mulched for the winter.

In this, its second fall, writes Mrs. Culp, a rabbit nibbled the top. Mr. Culp hastily covered the young tree with a fruit jar, but the tree's future is still uncertain.

Mrs. Culp says that she and Mr. Culp will probably attempt further experiments in the future.

Notice

Each student has the responsibility of meeting all graduation requirements according to the regulations and policies printed in the College catalogue. Faculty advisors and their staff members can assist the student if he will utilize such help as is available.

Fine Arts Chairman Has Record As Educator as Well as Artist

Miss Olive S. DeLuce, chairman of the College department of fine arts, has an admirable record as an educator and as an artist. Her accomplishments are known and recognized not only in Missouri, but in national and European circles as well.

Miss DeLuce, who accepted the position of chairman of the department of fine arts more than 25 years ago, is the daughter of Percival DeLuce, New York portrait painter and member of the National Academy of Design, and she is a great-great granddaughter of Thomas Thompson, who studied under Reynolds and was a member of the Royal Academy in England.

Was Born in New York City
Miss DeLuce was born in New York City and studied there under her father. She received her B. S. degree from Teachers College, New York, and her A. M. Degree from Columbia University, New York. She has worked toward a Ph. D. at both Columbia University and Wayne University, Detroit, Michigan.

She studied under Arthur Dow of Columbia University, Andre L'Hote of Paris, George Goetz of the Academie Secessionist, Kantor of the Students' Art League in New York, and at the Academie de la Chaulmiere.

First preparing to become a costume designer and illustrator, Miss DeLuce later became interested in art education.

Holds Offices

Miss DeLuce is presently a member and officer of the Missouri Art Council; the College Art Association; the Midwest College Art Association; Eastern and Western Art associations. She is chairman of the Northwest Missouri division of the American Artists' Professional League.

At various times in her career, Miss DeLuce has served as president of the National Art Education Association, Missouri College Art Education Association, and the Art Section of the Missouri State Teachers Association.

Has Membership in Many Groups

As a member of the Midwest Artists' Association, New York Independent Artists' Association, and the American Artists' Professional League, Miss DeLuce has exhibited her works in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, and Kansas City.

She has had three one-man shows in Kansas City and one in St. Louis, and is represented in private and public collections in the United States and South America. She is recognized in "Who's Who in the American Federation of Arts."

Served on Important Committees

Miss DeLuce served as a member of the Resolutions Committee of the Missouri State Teachers Association and as one of its vice-presidents. She acted as chairman of the committee which wrote the

Miss Olive S. DeLuce

Missouri Course of Study in Fine Arts for the secondary school.

She has been state vice-president and treasurer of the American Association of University Women and was a prime force behind the establishment of the Maryville branch of that organization. She was a delegate to the convention of the International Federation of University Women, Paris, France.

She is also a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and Delta Kappa Gamma, women's honorary education fraternity.

Has Accomplished Much

Among her many accomplishments at NWMSC, Miss DeLuce has led in the recognition of the department of art through the records of its graduates, the development of foundation courses in art acceptable throughout the United States, and the bringing of the chapter of Kappa Pi to the campus and the College Art Club.

Miss DeLuce takes particular pride in the museum of art housed in room 207 of the Administration building. The collection includes the works of some of the leading American artists, including Corbino, J. C. Nichols, and Waugh.

She Has Traveled Widely

Along with her heavy work schedule, Miss DeLuce enjoys many outside interests. She has traveled widely in this country and abroad. She designed and built her own home, and has advised in the planning of a number of homes of friends.

Honesty, according to Miss DeLuce, is the most important quality of the art student; other necessary characteristics of the successful artist include enthusiasm, basic idealism, ambition, continual production, intelligence, and a desire to attain the widest education possible.

Through the efforts of Miss DeLuce, the College department of art and its students occupy respected positions among the nation's educational institutions.

Letter to Tower Choir . . .

Omaha, Nebraska
102 No. 55 St.
January 27, 1959

Dear Tower Choir:

My nineteen year old son came home today and turned on the television. "Mom," he called, "your Alma Mater is on the air. Come listen." I did just that and may I say the choir sang beautifully.

Dr. Whitney chose wonderful selections, and I was proud of each and every one of you.

I sang in the chorus of your school thirty years ago under the direction of Dr. Gardner. That chorus is one of my fondest memories. I'm sure it will always be one of yours. The type of music sung then and now will always be a source of inspiration and joy.

Thank you for your time well spent and good luck always.

Dorothy Busby Conway

As WE Like It . . .

Auditorium seats were almost full for the Canadian Players' presentation of William Shakespeare's comedy "As You Like It," February 2. This fact may prove that students on this campus are really not allergic to Shakespeare.

Possibly, many students attended the assembly because of curiosity, but stayed for four curtain calls because of interest in what was truly a delightful performance from beginning to end.

Commendations should go to the students whose good taste, or curiosity, let them to attend the play.

National Defense Education Act Assigns Funds to This College

Northwest Missouri State College has been notified that it has been allotted $2,941 as its part of the student loan fund of the National Defense Education Act which is administered by the Office of Education of the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. The total funds available will be $3,268 for use in the current semester.

According to the terms of agreement between the college and the government "in the selection of students to receive loans from the Fund:

Special consideration shall be given:

(1) to students with a superior academic background who express a desire to teach in elementary or secondary schools; and

(2) to students whose academic background indicates a superior capacity or preparation in science, mathematics, engineering, or a modern foreign language; and

In the event applications exceed available funds the order of selection will be based on objective criteria as determined by the Institution."

It is further agreed that "loans from the Fund shall be granted by the Institution only to students who are in need of the amount of the loan to pursue a full-time course of study at the Institution; and that such a determination shall include consideration of:

a. The income and resources of the applicant's family;

b. Any income and assets of the applicant;

c. The costs reasonably necessary for the student's attendance at the Institution."

"Loans from the Fund shall be made reasonably available to all eligible applicants."

"An 'eligible applicant' is a student who (1) is enrolled or has been accepted for enrollment at the Institution as a full-time graduate or undergraduate student, (2) has filed an application for a loan from the Fund, (3) is in need of the amount of the loan to pursue his course of study, and (4) in the case of an application for admission to the Institution, is capable, in the opinion of the Institution, of maintaining good standing in such course of study, or, in the case of a student already attending such Institution, is in good standing."

Locally the National Defense Education Student Loan Fund will be administered by the committee on Student Loans of which Dr. Sterling Surrey is the chairman. Students interested in this loan fund should consult Dr. Surrey.

Jazz Band Resumes Thursday Practice

Members of the Progressive Jazz Group under the direction of Earle Moss have resumed work this year and are now practicing every Thursday for two hours.

The group consists of 16 instrumentalists and one vocalist. The trumpet players are Robert Dreher, Vic Anderson, Jack Ryan, and Galen Vogel. Trombone players are Dick Bauman, Dick Barrett, and Jim Shore. Marjorie Guinn plays piano with Gerald Jones on the bass and Joseph C. Combs and Katherine Clark on percussion.

Not so much dancing music as listening music in the modern fashion is the group's specialty. They play original arrangements like those played by many name bands, namely Stan Kenton, Les Brown, and Woody Herman. Special arrangements for the group are also made by Mr. Moss.

The activities for the Progressive Jazz Group consist of a campus concert, a tour in the spring, and other off-campus activities.

Dorm Girls Adopt Christmas Family

Money was given in amounts that each girl wanted to donate. A box was passed and a considerable amount of money was given.

Boys in the family received a twenty dollar clothing certificate. Forty dollars' worth of groceries and a beautifully decorated tree were also given the family.

Sergeant Believes Bible Quotation

Master Sergeant George W. Allen, a former student of the College, is a firm believer in a quotation from Ecclesiastes 7:1, "A good name is better than precious ointment."

As evidence of his belief, Sergeant Allen has more than two thousand autographs to prove it. He has been collecting the autographs since 1923. In that year, he became interested in people's names after he read Edward Bok's autobiography, THE AMERICANIZATION OF EDWARD BOK.

Has Collected Many Signatures
His collection of more than two thousand signatures includes such famous names as Thomas A. Edison, Albert Einstein, General Pershing, Orville Wright, Babe Ruth, and Lou Gehrig.

Sergeant Allen, a member of the National Association of Autograph Collectors, has shown his impressive ten volume collection in many schools and fairs.

Works in Public Information
While in the Army he has worked in the related field of public information for ten years, serving in Germany after World War II and Korea in 1950 and 1951. In his present assignment as Chief Information Specialist at Headquarters, 4th Region, U. S. Army Air Defense Command, it is his job to help disseminate information about the Army's role in Air Defense. He still devotes many hours after duty to writing for additional autographs to increase his collection.

Sergeant Allen, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Allen, live at 317 East 6th Street, Maryville, claims he would not sell the collection for any price. "Rather," he added, "I would give it to a museum or historical society."

Richard Frede Is Author of 'Entry E'

"Entry E" is a book recently published by Random House, written by Richard Frede. The story is about a college life that is neither conventional nor pleasant. It is a shocking novel that may repel or fascinate, but cannot be read with indifference.

Richard Frede attended eastern schools, and since he has graduated from Yale, he has been a magazine writer.

Frede's success in writing a short story encouraged him to write "Entry E."

Donna Jones Accepts Position as Secretary

Donna Sue Jones was elected secretary of the Student Senate, to fill the position left vacant by Deanie Sherard Kavanaugh, the retiring secretary. Karen Behrends was elected to fill the vacancy of treasurer left by Dick Hargrave.

Maryville Chamber of Commerce Honors President J. W. Jones

Dr. J. W. Jones, president of Northwest State College, has been named the 1958 recipient of the third annual Chamber of Commerce Community Service Award. He was chosen by a secret committee of three.

Building Receives New Color Scheme

Students of the College received a nice surprise when upon returning to classes after Christmas vacation they found the halls of the Administration building painted in a fresh, new color scheme.

Alternating colors of dark green, green, and pale blue make up the colors of the hall ceiling beams, making the halls appear wider and shorter. The background, the ceiling itself, is white. The white has been extended to form a border.

Light green and light blue form the combination colors of the walls.

New stair treads which will decrease the danger of students' slipping, have been added to the stairs. Another surprise given the students was the painting of the Bearcat Den.

Club Asks Students To Attend Meeting

Students interested in photography have been invited to attend meetings of the Maryville Camera Club which are held every Thursday evening at 7:30 at the Alex Studio, 220½ North Main.

Persons who have cameras and wish to learn more about camera operation and photographic techniques are urged to attend. The club is to be for amateurs and professional photographers of all degrees of experience.

A blank appears in this issue of the Northwest Missourian to be filled out and mailed by interested persons.

U. S. Navy Forms 'Heart of America'

Chief H. F. Rowland, of the Navy Recruiting Station of St. Joseph, announced recently that the U. S. Navy is forming a special company of young men from the states of Kansas and Western Missouri, to be known as the Navy's "Heart of America" Company.

These men will be formed into a company and will depart from Kansas City tomorrow by air for San Diego, California, where they will undergo recruit training at the Naval Recruit Training Center.

Young men qualifying may select the field of training they desire before enlisting. They may also enlist with their buddy, train together, and return home on recruit leave together.

At a Chamber of Commerce dinner, February 5, Dr. Jones was awarded an engraved plaque by B. J. Alcott, editor of The Daily Forum, the 1957 winner. The 1958 honoree was Mayor Glen Boyles.

Awarded on Basis of Work
The College president was named for the award on the basis of the work he has been doing for Northwest Missouri State College in meeting growing enrollments and in planning for the future of the College, which means much to Maryville.

Alcott cited the fact that the College had a nearly 300 per cent increase in enrollment since 1952 and that the classes were growing by an average of about 250 per year, which brought about a $4,000,000 expansion program.

College Buildings Have Doubled
Alcott also pointed to the fact that physical buildings on the campus had doubled numerically in the past eight years and that plans are underway for additional dormitory facilities.

Dr. Jones came to Maryville from Terre Haute, Ind., in 1938 as dean of faculty of the State College under the late Dr. Uel W. Lamkin. He became the sixth president of the College in 1945 when Dr. Lamkin retired.

Started Career as Teacher
Dr. Jones started teaching in a one-room schoolhouse in 1912 and has been an educator ever since.

He served in the Navy during World War I and is a past commander of the Maryville American Legion post.

Active in Boy Scouts
Dr. Jones has been active in Boy Scout work in both Indiana and Missouri and has served on numerous committees in educational associations.

He is an active Rotarian and he and Mrs. Jones are members of the Presbyterian Church. He is a past president of the Men's Monday Forum and has served as chairman of the Nodaway County Child Welfare Committee.

Concert Band to Tour Two Days Next Month

Mother of Teacher Dies

The funeral for the mother of Mr. H. R. Dieterich, education instructor at the College, was held Tuesday at Marceline.

Derthick Appoints Committee to Study Educational Media

U. S. Commissioner of Education Lawrence G. Derthick has appointed a National Advisory Committee to assist the Office of Education in conducting intensive research into the more effective use of newer educational media—TV, radio, motion pictures, and tapes.

This is the first advisory committee to be named for any of the programs under the National Defense Educational Act. Some research proposals have been submitted by organizations under the educational media program. These and subsequent research proposals will be reviewed by the committee.

Fourteen Make Up Committee

Commissioner Derthick has named twelve members to the committee. The law provides that a thirteenth member shall represent the National Science Foundation. Commissioner Derthick is the chairman of the committee and the fourteenth member.

Appointment of the Committee is a major step forward in the effective operation of this program. The Advisory Committee has the important task of approving all grants-in-aid and contracts made under the provisions of the educational media research program.

things were, they ask, "Why didn't you know? In your country your people control the government," she related.

Must Know World Conditions

For leadership, we must know conditions in the world, Mrs. Roosevelt reiterated. Our nation was built up by looking after self interest, but no longer are we living just for ourselves.

"It is not wise to be so proud of what we have that we do not recognize that others have things to be proud of too," she advised. "It is wiser to learn of them and in that way get a better attitude."

The United Nations was recommended as a proper agency for dealing with world problems, and as a place where different peoples could become acquainted.

We Should Say Little

We should demonstrate every once in a while that we are doing something to maintain a balance of power, "but we should say very little," Mrs. Roosevelt cautioned, as words can be used against us in charges of war-mongering, but we must show by our actions that we desire peace. However, she pointed out that an imbalance means that one power would rule.

Russia is carrying on a carefully planned program of showcasing her own advancements made under the communistic system in a comparatively short time. Mrs. Roosevelt admits how great this progress has been, and how effective it is in appealing to many peoples of the world.

Mrs. Roosevelt contrasted the methods of motivation by compulsion in Russia, and by showing a need for effort in the United States. She maintained that "the place for us to begin showing that we have something better to offer is in the United States."

Must Learn to Live With Danger

Being free of discipline, the people, especially youth, must discipline themselves to accept responsibility. "We must learn to live with danger," she averred but much can be achieved through the United Nations.

"We need to understand that we are not going to win peoples by giving more ourselves, but by helping them to help themselves to achieve a better standard of living," she declared.

Young people must have vision, courage, and faith in themselves. Especially, Mrs. Roosevelt admonished her listeners, "It is time you woke up and went to work."

Graduate Writes Of Soviet Union

Dr. Lucile Lindberg, 1937 graduate of the College who majored in social science, recently wrote an article on "Higher Education in the Soviet Union" which appeared in the "Delta Kappa Gamma Bulletin," winter 1959.

The Comparative Education Society selected Dr. Lindberg as one of seventy-one educators to engage in a study of education in the U.S.S.R. during August and September of 1958. In her article, she tells of her study while on the five-week seminar.

According to Dr. Lindberg, Russian college students are mature, responsible persons with keen interest in their study and delightful curiosity. They study hard. She also said that there is no teacher shortage in Russia as it is one of the most highly respected and highly paid positions in the Soviet Union; so there is no temptation to move into a more lucrative post in another field. Many other interesting topics are brought to view in the article.

Dr. Lindberg is now a member of the faculty of the Department of Education of Queens College, New York City.

Council Members Explain Purposes

Members of the Executive and General Councils of the Association of Women Students wish to explain the purpose of their organization on this campus.

AWS is a new organization here and includes every girl on the campus. Its purpose, as stated in the constitution, is "to unite the women of the campus and to enable them to speak and act as the united voice of the women of Northwest Missouri State College. The AWS shall foster friendliness and leadership among College women to prepare them for their future life as citizens in a community and in the world at large. "The AWS shall endeavor to preserve honor, regulate the conduct of the women students, and enforce such regulations as do not fall within the constitution of the Student Government Association or the Dean of Women."

In order for the Association to be effective, the cooperation and enthusiasm of every girl on campus is necessary.

In the near future a mass meeting will be held, at which time officers will be elected.

It is the hope of the councils that stronger ties of understanding will be built as women students come to appreciate their organization and its purposes.

Herman has been in the band business for 20 years. His band has been cited by "Parade" and "Time" magazines for bringing back dancing, and has placed in the top seven in several popularity polls.

The area would be widened by establishing and supporting branch junior colleges of state-supported four-year colleges in strategic localities as determined by a state planning committee for higher education.

Theme of the Founder's Day program was "Today's Action Is Tomorrow's Gain." Marion E. Gibbons, dean of the St. Joseph Junior College, introduced Dr. Jones.

'Cat Wrestling Team Remains Unbeaten

Bearcat Wrestlers Score Fourth Win

Maryville's wrestling team easily downed Ft. Hays State of Kansas, on the opponents' mat, Saturday, February 7, by a score of 24-5. It was the fourth victory in a row for Coach H. D. Peterson's proteges, against no defeats.

Bearcat wrestlers didn't have any more trouble with their Kansas opponents than they had in the past against other foes, as they copped six of the eight individual matches. The only two Bearcats who had trouble were Harold Wilmarth, who was tied, and Lynn Peterson, who was decisoned. Jim Clayton and Doyle Thomas pinned their men.

Results were as follows: Votapka of Ft. Hays decisoned Lynn Peterson, 123 lbs.; Ralph Messerli decisoned Packton, 130 lbs.; Chuck Shoening beat Rodero, 137 lbs.; Larry Schweizer whipped McKee, 147 lbs.; Harold Wilmarth and Kratzer, of Ft. Hays, fought to a 6-6 draw, in the 157 lb. class; Bill Waugh trounced Karr, 167 lbs.; and Jim Clayton and Doyle Thomas pinned McLeod and Bradfield in the 177 and heavyweight class, respectively.

Much credit should be given to Coach Peterson for the great job he is doing.

Bearcats Defeat Cape; Move to Fourth Place In MIAA Conference

Maryville's Bearcats jumped from the cellar all the way to fourth place in the MIAA basketball standings by defeating Cape Girardeau, 75-69, here February 2.

Coach Marion Moss' cagers, who are now 2-4 in conference play, used a delay game offense to a very good advantage. Shooting only close-in shots, they hit a torrid 73.5 per cent from the field in the game, netting 80 per cent in the first half and 63 per cent in the second. The Bearcats were just as hot at the foul line, hitting 19 of 20 gift shots in the first half to give them a 41-33 lead at the half-way mark. They made 29 of 39 foul shots in the whole game, which accounted for the win, as both teams hit 23 field shots.

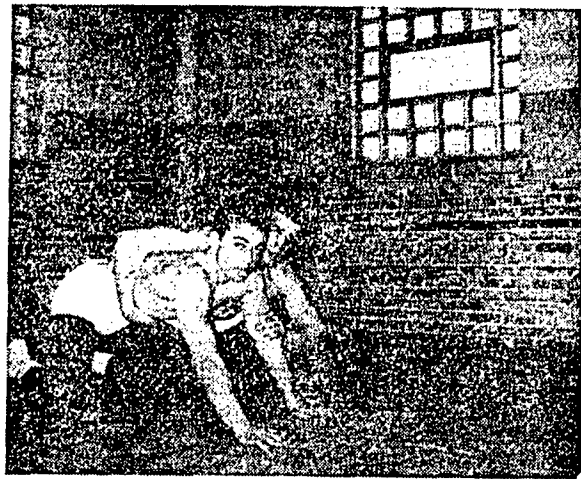

Carl Ritter was the big gun for the Indians, who used a full court pressing zone defense the last half, with 18 markers.

Gene Jordan took game high honors for the Bearcats with eight buckets and 10 of 15 free throws, but big Leland Jackson and little Charlie Goff weren't far behind with 17 and 13 points, respectively.

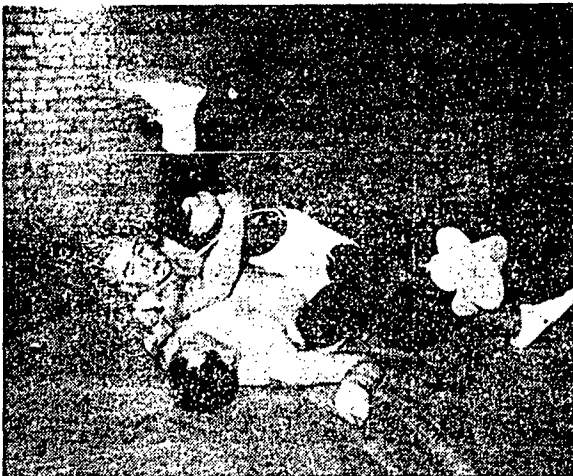

Bearcat Grapplers Display Various Wrestling Moves

Larry Schweizer in the above picture is using the wrestling move of breaking an opponent off his knees on Lynn Peterson.

This picture shows one way of pinning an opponent. Jim Clayton has Bill Waugh in a successful cradle hold.

Bill Waugh is shown how to take an opponent off his feet on Harold Wilmarth, using the fireman's carry method.

Random Shots . . .

Marion Moss, coach of the Bearcat cagers, reports that two men who transferred this semester should give his team a boost next year. They are Phil Rollins, freshman transfer from Missouri University, and Ron Bergston, sophomore from Peru State Teachers of Nebraska. Rollins is from Southeast high school in Kansas City, and Bergston's hometown is Red Oak, Iowa. Both men will be ineligible until next year, but they are working out with the varsity this semester.

Compare last year's basketball record with this season's and you'll notice a decided uplift in Bearcat cage fortunes.

Don Eklund, 6-1 senior guard, played the last home game of his career against Warrenburg last week. Don has played some very good games this season, and really gave a boost to the 'Cats. Another senior, Marland Ray, 6-2 forward, has another year of eligibility left, but it is doubtful that he will return.

Bearcat track squad members are starting to work out in the gymnasium for the approaching indoor season. This corner would like to see a lot of those capable "armchair" athletes, who in the past have been spectators, turn out this season. The track team needs them!

Intramural Games To End Tomorrow

Four top teams will begin the post-season intramural basketball tournament today. The tournament will end tomorrow, concluding the intramural basketball season. A total of 460 games were played during the year. Thirty-eight teams entered at the start of competition.

Intramural volleyball will start on Monday, February 23. It will be a double elimination tournament. Any team which loses two games will be dropped.

Bowling and badminton will follow on the agenda. Bowling will be at Nodaway Lanes between 4 and 6 p.m., and the badminton tournament will be held in the College gymnasium in the evenings.

Bowling teams should be turned in to Dr. H. D. Peterson's office by Friday, February 27.

Cagers to Meet Kirksville and Graceland

College Is Proud Of Basketball Star

One of the most widely known students on this campus is a tall, blond haired girl who has the distinction of being an All-American basketball player. She is Shirley Peterson, a senior, from Audubon, Iowa.

29 points.

For such efforts, she was named to the 12 girl All-America squad. She was the only girl picked from a quarter final team.

Shirley graduated from Audubon High School in 1955, where she was named to the honorable mention for All-State list. During her freshman and sophomore years at NWMSC, she played for the Morris Plan and Beacon Restaurant teams from St. Joseph, respectively.

She is majoring in physical education, and has a minor in business, working toward a B. S. in Secondary Education degree.

With Shirley pumping in baskets at a 15 point per game clip, the Platt Secretaries have a 12-9 record this year, playing against some of the best girls teams in the nation, such as Nashville Business College, last year's national champions.

The whole student body joins in wishing Shirley the best of luck in this year's national A. A. U. Tournament.

Bearcats Surpass Graceland College

Playing far below par, the Northwest Bearcats met a non-conference foe, Graceland College, of Lamoni, Iowa, in the College gymnasium, Saturday night, February 7. However, the 'Cats managed to rack up their third straight win, 45-35.

Gene Jordan was high point man again, with 14 points. Don Eklund played a fine floor game for Maryville, both on defense and offense. J. D. Turner and Henneman paced Graceland with eight points each.

Mules Fall to 'Cats In Overtime Game By Score of 63-61

Northwest Missouri State basketball fans saw one of the most exciting games of the season, Tuesday night, February 10, as the Bearcats nipped the Warrensburg Mules, 63-61, in an overtime. It was the fourth straight conquest for Coach Moss' team.

Faced with an early 10-point deficit, the 'Cats caught fire and, sparked by big "Goose" Jackson, roared to a 31-29 halftime lead. The Mules were hot though, and with only seven minutes left to play, were sporting a 45-38 lead.

Don Eklund, playing with a broken rib, and little Charlie Goff put the local team back in the game in two minutes flat. The score stood 52 all with five minutes left. Goff put them in the lead, only to have Warrensburg hit the tying bucket in the last ten seconds. The Bearcats held a four point lead during most of the five-minute overtime and came out with their third straight conference victory.

Free Throws Are Decisive

Free throws were the deciding factor as Maryville hit only 21 fielders compared to the visitors' 27, but the Bearcats dumped in 21 out of 22 gift shots, while the Mules made 7 of 10 from the line. Warrensburg shot 62.5 per cent from the field to the 'Cats' 44.5.

Bickham and Throneberry paced the Mules with 25 and 16 points, respectively. They couldn't match the local team's balance and team work, though. Gene Jordan, MIAA leading scorer with a 20.2 average, hit only 14 points, but he was backed strongly by Don Eklund, Charlie Goff—who played a fine defensive game also, and Jackson, all with 13 points.

Eklund, who played one of the finest games of his career, and Marland Ray, last year's scoring leader, played their last home game as the Bearcats' last five games of the season are on the road.

Bearcats to Complete Season While Meeting Last Cage Foes

Maryville's basketball cagers, in continuing their road trip, will meet the Bulldogs of Kirksville Friday, February 20, for their last conference game. On February 23 they will clash with Graceland College to complete their basketball season. Both games will start at 8:00 p.m.

Seeking revenge, the Bearcats will meet the Bulldogs of Northeast Missouri State College in Pershing Field House at Kirksville. Their first meeting this season was on January 14, on Maryville's court. The Bearcats fell by a score of 72-53. Coach Marion Moss feels things will be different this time, as shown by the tremendous spirit and fire of the team in recent games.

Kirksville Has Series Edge

Kirksville's series of basketball games goes back to 1920 when the Bulldogs downed Maryville 29-25 in the first game between the two. Down through the years Maryville has won 35 games while losing 41. The last win for the Bearcats was in 1951 when they came out on top by a score of 57-56.

Larry Swift, ace Bulldog forward, is the main problem facing the Bearcats. He has been on the top of the conference in scoring along with Maryville's Gene Jordan for most of the season. Swift dropped in 21 points in the game on January 14. Another problem Coach Moss will have to solve is the height and rebounding strength of the Bulldogs. The Bearcats snagged 23 rebounds while Kirksville got 34 in their first meeting.

Bearcats Face Graceland

February 23, the Bearcats will meet Graceland College of Lamoni, Iowa, for the second time this season. Maryville downed the Yellow Jackets 45-35 in their first meeting on February 7, and will be out to repeat that performance. The low score shows the extensive ball control that Coach Moss is using very successfully with his team.

Graceland's main threat comes with Gary Hannanman and J. D. Turner who lead the team in scoring and who prove to be the mainstays and all around players on the Yellow Jacket team.

Much credit should be given to Coach Moss for the season and to the team for their spirit and fight which they have shown in every game.

'Cat Cagers Split Two Road Contests

Two MIAA conference games at Cape Girardeau and Rolla were split by the Bearcat cagers last Friday and Saturday nights.

The Cape Indians gained revenge for an earlier defeat by downing the 'Cats, 71-56. They held a 35-21 halftime advantage, and behind the shooting of Les Hemmer, coasted the rest of the way. Hemmer pumped in 27 points, while Gene Jordan led the losers with 18. This game snapped a four game winning streak for Coach Moss's team.

Maryville bounced back against the cellar dwelling Rolla Miners the following night. The 56-49 victory gave them a 4-5 conference record and an 8-9 overall season record.

Wrestlers Defeat Missouri U. Team

Northwest Missouri State's wrestling team soundly trounced the Missouri University team, 36-0, before a big crowd here, last Saturday night. The Bearcats, coached by H. D. Peterson, stretched their season's record to five wins against no defeats as five M. U. men were pinned by the 'Cats.

Lynn Peterson, 123 lbs., Larry Schweizer, 147 lbs., Harold Wilmarth, 157 lbs., Jim Clayton, 177 lbs., and Doyle "Tank" Thomas, heavyweight, downed their Tiger opponents for the count, while Roger Shoening, 130 lbs., and Ralph Messerli, 137 lbs., easily outpointed their victims.

... Writing a Good Term Paper ...

"Writing a Good Term Paper" was prepared for high school and college students by Mildred Helzen of the Journal Staff of the National Education Association. The article appeared in the November, 1958, issue on pages 560 and 561.

Writing a term paper, like any other big undertaking, can be a satisfying experience or a discouraging one. These suggestions may help make it as useful and as satisfying as possible for you.

WHAT TO WRITE ABOUT

Give a great deal of thought to choice of subject; you'll be living with it for a long time to come, and a hasty decision may lead to trouble later.

It's almost fatal to choose a topic that's too big. For example, you'd hardly know where to begin if you selected the general topic, art, but a subject like the works of Leonardo da Vinci or famous Gothic cathedrals could be interesting and manageable.

HANDLING THE DETAILS

Probably your class will use a manual giving detailed instructions on note-taking, outlining, preparing a bibliography, and footnotes. Don't let the many details get you down. With the help of the instruction manual and your teacher, you'll have no trouble with them.

Every minute you spend outlining your paper may save you five later on when you and all those blank sheets of paper are alone together.

A bibliography makes your work simpler by providing a logically arranged, complete, and accurate listing of the sources from which you've drawn material. With the information given in the bibliography, too, the reader can easily locate books and articles on the subject you've introduced him to in your paper.

Footnotes, among other things, tell the reader your authority for statistics or statements he might question.

HOW TO GATHER YOUR MATERIAL

You'll use many kinds of sources, but here are the essential ones you'll need to locate in the library and learn to use, no matter what subject you choose:

Card catalogue
READERS' GUIDE TO PERIODICAL LITERATURE
Periodical collection
Vertical file

General reference works like encyclopedias, WORLD ALMANAC, WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA

These will save you time and open doors to new interests and information.

Incidentally, before you begin collecting books, magazines, and pamphlets, it's wise to read a brief, general treatment of your topic—perhaps in the encyclopedia. Doing this will orient you and help you

TERM PAPER—decide which aspects of the subject you want to devote the most time and space to.

When you've explored all the resources you know of, the librarian may be able to direct you to others. Do the preliminary thinking and searching before you ask his assistance, though.

HOW TO JUDGE A SOURCE

Note these things about the books and articles you consult:

1. Who wrote it? Has the author had experience which should make him well qualified to write on the subject? Do you know anything about him which might make you doubt his reliability?

2. When was it written? If you want to write about earth satellites, you'll have to use many sources written within the past year, since the launching of Sputnik I. On the other hand, one of the best possible sources for a paper on Benjamin Franklin is over 150 years old—his AUTOBIOGRAPHY. Always noting publication dates will protect you from the pitfalls of using out-of-date sources.

3. If the source is a history or biography, does the author provide footnotes and a bibliography? Reliable histories and biographies ordinarily include these.

4. If the source is a magazine, what is its reputation for reliability? If the magazine published an article claiming one thing in January and something contradictory in March, you will want to take that into account.

5. Does the librarian indicate that he considers the source unusually good by recommending it to you or by keeping it on the reference shelf?
